EULOGY FOR THE LATE REV. CAPTAIN PETERSON CHRISTOPHER BUNDI GACHOKI

We thank God for the privilege of sharing our lives with Rev. Captain Christopher Bundi Gachoki. Today we celebrate the life of a loving son, father, husband, brother, uncle, grandfather and friend to many. We cannot fail to honour his contributions to the family, society, and the church, through which he touched the lives of all he met. He was an extremely respectable person to his last day on earth.

EARLY CHILDHOOD & FAMILY LIFE

The late Rev. Captain Peterson Bundi Gachoki was born on 3rd August 1968 in Kiangurwe village, Thimu sub-location, Rwathai Location, Kirinyaga County. He was the 3rd born of Mr. James Gachoki Njau and the late Charity Wathitha Gachoki. He was the husband of Esther Poline Njeri Bundi. Father to Panuel Mutugi, Dorcas Nyakio, and Caleb Kiama of Technical University, Mombasa.

He was the brother of the late Charles Muthike (Njau), Rose Wambura, David Chomba (Macai), Zipporah Wambui, Millicent Wanjiru, Susan Wanjiku, and Violet Wawira.

He was the son-in-law of Mr. Simon Njugu Kimui and Lydia Muthoni Njugu.

He was brother-in-law to Eston & Margaret Wanjiku Nyaga, Jackson & Immaculate Wanjiku Mugo, Jotham & Judy Wambui Kabiru, Harrison & Beatrice Muthoni Njoka, Rev. Antony Maina Njugu (Nyali Parish, ACK Mombasa Diocese) & Phoebe Atieno Maina, Rev. Isaac Muriithi Njugu (Kianjogu Parish, ACK Kirinyaga Diocese) & Jane Njeri Isaac, Ruth Chomba, Robert Muriithi, Thandayo Kibaba and Lawrence Njue.

Rev. Captain married and was joined with his dear wife, Esther Poline Njeri, in holy matrimony on 4th September 1993 at the ACK All Saints Church, Kianyaga Parish, Raimu, by the late Rev. Hezron Mwangi. Their best couple was Tabitha Njoki Njiru and Stephen Njiru Kithendu.

CHRISTIAN LIFE

The late Peterson was an active church member from his early life through their local home church, ACK St. Luke's, Kiandai, where he was baptized and later confirmed. He was an active Sunday School student and later a Sunday School teacher in the same Church, and participated in various Sunday School Drama and Music Festivals and Competitions. He later joined the Church youth programs, then called KAYO, which he carried to his secondary School at Mutige Boys as the CU Chairman after giving his life to Christ on 22nd August 1988.

He later joined East Africa Revival, where his mother, the late Charity Wathitha Gachoki, was an active member, participating in their fellowships in various places, preaching and delivering the gospel of Christ.

He served in various capacities at St. Luke's Kiandai Parish, initially in the Parish Council, as Treasurer (his mother once also served in the same position), Vice-Chair, and Development Chair.

He later joined the Church Army Africa Carrile College along Jogoo Road and graduated as a Captain on 15th December 2017.

On 13th December 2018, he was made a Deacon in the ACK Meru Diocese and was posted to ACK Gaturi Parish as a Vicar and was ordained a priest on 15th December 2019. On 1st January 2020, he was transferred to Mbironi Parish as a Vicar. He was later transferred to several parishes, including Kanooro Parish (o1.01.2022), Kanuni Parish (01.01.2023), Kathwaana Parish (01.01.2024), and his last station, Kiiga Parish, from 10th June 2025.

Under his guidance, his family has continued in church service, with his wife holding various leadership positions in the local church, the Mothers Union, the Archdeaconry, other national Christian forums, and currently in the Synod of the ACK Diocese of Kirinyaga. His son, Caleb, is the serving Youth Treasurer at the All Saints Church & Parish, Kianyaga.

The late Peterson also served as the President of Gideons International, Kianyaga Branch, distributing Bibles to many in prisons, schools, and many public spaces in Kenya and neighboring countries. The program was at some point to take him to the USA. He was also an active writer and contributor to the Daily Guide, popularly known as Uteithio wa O Muthenya.

EDUCATION & CAREER LIFE

In 1976, Peterson started his education at Kiandai Primary School and later moved to Raimu Primary School due to some health challenges with his leg. He later moved back to Kiandai Primary, where he completed his primary schooling. He sat for his KCPE in 1986 and joined Mutige Boys High School in 1987. He sat for his KCSE in 1990.

After high school, he ventured into several businesses. His brother David bequeathed him a Yashika camera, which he turned into a thriving photography business. This was later to expand into videography, Staff & students IDs laminating, and Exam passports laminating across many schools and institutions in Kirinyaga. He also ventured into book binding for secondary schools in Kirinyaga.

In addition, he got into coffee, macadamia, dairy, and poultry farming. He was a member of Kirima Cooperative Society and Kianyaga Limbua Farmers CBO.

For a long time, he got deep into multilevel marketing, joining Golden Neo-Life Dianamites (GNLD), Tasly Pharmaceuticals INC, BF Suma, Forever Living, Quanjian Group, and Tianshi Health Company. All these were mainly dealing in health supplements and equipment, earning him the title daktari in some quarters. Part of his intervention led to some patients healing from fibroids and some getting babies after long periods of waiting. Hallelujah!

SICKNESS

Peterson enjoyed good health until March of this year, when he started being unwell. He was treated in various facilities with several admissions. This included Mary Immaculate Kerugoya Hospital, Karira Mission Hospital, Nairobi West Hospital, and finally Tumutumu Mission Hospital in Karatina, where he met his death at around 4.00 am while undergoing treatment and went to be with the Lord. He had multiple organ complications, including in the liver and kidneys.

He has left behind his dear wife, Esther Poline Njeri, and loving sons Panuel Mutugi and Caleb Kiama, and his loving daughter Dorcas Nyakio.

We thank God for giving us Rev. Cptn. Peterson Bundi Gachoki

FATHER

My Beloved Son,

From the very moment you were born, you changed my world forever. Watching you grow into the man you became was the greatest honor and the proudest joy of my life. You brought a light into our home and into my heart that can never be extinguished, even now.

They say a father is supposed to guide his son, but the truth is, you taught me so much about strength, kindness, and living life with an open heart. Losing you feels like losing a part of my very soul. The silence left behind is heavy, and the void is immense. I would give absolutely anything for just one more conversation, one more laugh, or one more hug.

Though your time with us was far too short, the depth of your impact is everlasting. You lived with purpose, you loved fiercely, and you touched so many lives. I take comfort in knowing that your pain has ended and that your spirit is free, but I will miss you every single day for the rest of my days.

You will always be my boy, my pride, and my joy. Rest in peace, my beautiful son. Until we meet again.

With all my love, forever,

Your Father

WIFE

To my dear husband,
No words befit my feelings right now. Time really flies. 33 years of our togetherness appear like a fortnight. I followed you at that time because of your faith in God. I just believed so much in your faith and strongly believed that God would bless us. True to that, He has, and you have really moulded me to be someone of strong faith. Your charm, especially your contagious smile, carried me away. You told me that you chose me also because of beauty and brown colour, so that the colour of our children would not be of any extreme. Your jokes have kept our spirits lively and warm. When you got sick in March, you told me thrice that your earthly works had come to an end. I strongly refuted this until I had to send Bro. Nelson Ndegwa to talk to you and not to say it again. You obeyed and stopped just to please me. Seven months later, we have fought through thin and thick to sustain your life to no avail. When I was called to the hospital on that fateful Wednesday, 4th Nov, and found your hospital bed empty, I vividly remembered the three March confessions that you were going home to meet your maker. God had truly prepared you, but my carnal mind couldn't just fathom that. You kept saying nothing could separate you from the love of God. Surely you have gone to meet your best friend - Jesus. Rest easy, my dear. Your faith in God remained steadfast throughout your sickness. There was no time when you showed desperation on your sickbed, especially in the month of October, which you spent the whole of it in three different hospitals. Bundi, you are a true fighter. Rest easy, dear. Till we meet again.

PANUEL

There is a popular saying that a father is the only man who genuinely wants to see you succeed more than himself. Dad, you lived that truth every day. You were my classroom outside of school—my best friend, advocate, doctor, and counselor. You taught me how to drive, how to ride a bike, and most importantly, how to pray and honor God. By watching how beautifully you treated Mom, you taught me how to love; I'm the romantic man I am today because of you (just ask my girlfriend!).
We built a lifetime of memories that would take ages to summarize, but today, I choose to celebrate the strongest man I have ever known. Life brought you heavy storms, yet you chose never to give up. You stood firm for us, and your resilience became the anchor that kept our family going strong. Even now, your legacy continues to inspire so many, and I am still discovering wonderful, selfless things you accomplished that I never even knew about. Your dedication to the ministry was truly unmatched.
I find peace knowing you are dining with Jesus now, watching over us from above. I will forever hold close the memory of that final gift—doing the one thing you asked that brought a smile to your face on that hospital bed. I will miss you deeply, Dad, especially the warmth of your bright white teeth beaming down upon me. Rest in glory.
Shalom. Shalom. Shalom

NYAKIO

Dear Dad,
I hope you are okay now.
I know you are at peace and happy that you get to be with your mum and uncle Njau.
I am glad I got to tell you how much I love you on your last day. I got to see you and hold your hand.
I didn't know that on that tuesday it would be the last time I physically told you that.
Dad, words cannot express the amount of pain am feeling right now.
You were not only my dad but you were my best friend and confidant.
You were the one person I could always share my wins, my thoughts and dilemmas with.
You always encouraged me to be better and have high standards.
You always believed in me so much.
Dad am so honoured to have been your daughter.
I am humbled to have experienced your love.
You never stoped telling me how much you love me.
You'd have done anything and everything just for me to be happy.
Now that you are gone, I don't know what am supposed to do without you. Speaking about you in past tense is so strange. I wasn't done being your daughter.
We had so many plans, so many talks to have and so many memories to create.
I'll never get to hear your call me Mum again but your voice will always be in me.
I hope I also get to live a full life like you did, doing what I love just like you did.
You were a great man. You handled everything with grace even during your sick period. Words are not enough, so for now I'll have to let you go.
I love you and I'll miss you so much dad.
Rest in peace.

Isaiah 57:1-2

1 The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart; the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil.
2 Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death.
